

APRIL 08 2016

AIG in the Philippines Joins Habitat for Humanity in Juan Build 2016 Launch

April 8 - AIG in the Philippines participates in "Juan Builds 2016" kick-off to help in constructing new homes for the residents of Sto. Tomas, Batangas.

Senior management from different AIG entities - AIG Philippines Insurance, AIG Shared Services - Asia, AIG Shared Services - Philippines, AIG Global ADM Services -

CTO (Philippines), and AIG Shared Services Corporation - Management Services (ROHQ) participated in this initial build. It involved house construction. The core committee members of AIG's IcSRV Manila were also present during the event. AIG volunteers will continue to help in the constructing new houses on Fridays of April.

Established by the non-profit organization, Habitat for Humanity Philippines, this program aims to provide shelter for families who survived the typhoon.

AIG in the Philippines kicked off "Juan Builds 2016" with Habitat for Humanity on April 8 in Sto. Tomas, Batangas.

The first of four activities that will take place every Friday this April consisted of cement-mixing, gravel-laying, and excavation work. Senior management from different AIG entities participated in this initial build - AIG Philippines Insurance, AIG Shared Services - Asia, AIG Shared Services - Philippines, AIG Global ADM Services - CTO (Philippines), and AIG Shared Services Corporation - Management Services (ROHQ). The core committee members of AIG's IcSRV Manila were also present during the event.

Established by the non-profit organization, Habitat for Humanity Philippines, this program aims to provide shelter for families who survived the typhoon.

